

Vol. 31: Mainstreaming Lakes in the Global Water Agenda

July 12th, 2019
ILEC Secretariat

Summer greetings from ILEC Secretariat!

In association with the 17th World Lake Conference held in Ibaraki, Japan, ILEC convened an International Colloquium on October 14, 2018 to discuss the role and importance of lakes and reservoirs in the international water arena. The Colloquium comprised participants from governments, UN agencies and international organizations from around the world. <Related Article: <https://www.ilec.or.jp/en/topics/7373/> >

You can find the draft output on the ILEC website, please look over.
Thank you.
